

Erica Lemp serves as the Program Planning Officer for Brevard Workforce. In this role, she is responsible for program development activities, particularly those that pertain to youth clients, strengthening small business partnerships and entrepreneurial endeavors. She is active in grant writing and takes an innovative approach to program success. She is heavily involved in the community and gives of her time and talent to the following organizations and committees dealing with youth welfare.

- Family Promise of Brevard, Vice Chair
- Advisory Board for the Melbourne High School Academy of Business and Finance
- Together in Partnership Advisory Board
- Students in Transition Committee for Brevard Public Schools
- Career Pathways Steering Committee for Brevard Public Schools
- Advisory Committee for the Emerging Leaders Program with United Way
- Circuit 18 DJJ Advisory Board
- United Way Employee Campaign Leader for Brevard Workforce
- Past Mentor for Take Stock in Children

Prior to her work with Brevard Workforce, Erica worked for six years as Program Director for LEAD Brevard, developing and implementing Leadership and Community Development programming. She is a graduate of James Madison University in Virginia and holds a degree in Communications/ Public Relations.

Erica lives in Rockledge with her husband and cat. She is a 2014 finalist for the Brevard 4 Under 40 Recognition.