

Proclamation
School Board of Brevard County, Florida
Parental Alienation Awareness Month

WHEREAS, alienating behaviors, often found in high-conflict divorce and custody situations, can cause mental and emotional anguish to children, depriving them of their right to love and be loved by both parents; and

WHEREAS, parental alienation takes advantage of the suggestibility and dependency of children and deprives them of their right to love and be loved by both parents; and

WHEREAS, parental alienation is considered harmful to children, robbing them of their sense of security, and can affect them in to adulthood with tragic consequences; and

WHEREAS, childhood establishes the integral fundamental understanding, concept, and importance of gender, religious, economic, and racial equality

WHEREAS, Parental Alienation Awareness Month is intended to increase knowledge and understanding of the problem and to help parents, caregivers, and social services providers stop the abuse of innocent children caught in the crossfire of the people they love.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the School Board of Brevard County, Florida, hereby designate the month of April as Parental Alienation Awareness Month.

Passed and adopted in regular session on March 27, 2018

Desmond K. Blackburn, Ph. D.
Superintendent

John W. Craig
School Board Chairman